

Londonwide LMCs

The professional voice of London general practice

Londonwide LMCs' January 2018 newsletter

January 2018 Newsletter

Local authority reports and letters reimbursement

With practice resources more squeezed than ever we have written to local authorities in London to remind them that GP practices should be reimbursed for time spent writing certain reports and letters.

READ MORE

Get ready now for the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Data protection law is changing this year. Practices need to be ready for the GDPR which comes into force on 25 May 2018.

READ MORE

Dr PJS Sandhu obituary

This month we lost Dr PJS Sandhu, an LMC member for Ealing and a prominent Southall GP. PJ was an enthusiastic advocate for general practice in West London for more than three decades.

READ MORE

LMC elections 2018

This summer every seat on all our LMCs is up for election. We look forward to welcoming representation from all GPs including partners, employed, locum, new entrants and trainees.

READ MORE

Primary care barometer

Our researchers at Rand are still looking for practice managers who are willing to join an innovative stress and workload study.

READ MORE

Resource of the Month

Updated finance guides

We have updated our suite of finance guides ahead of the start of the new financial year.

Download

SNAP POLL

What best describes your practice's financial planning?

On top of it

Getting by

Not enough time

Guidance Updates

- GPC Chair's newsletter

- Sessional GP newsletter

- BMA Capita update

- GDPR FAQs

- School sick note request template letter

Londonwide Diary
February

01
Primary Care Home national event - London

01
GPC election nominations close

07
Infection prevention and control

15

GPC roadshow

March

09

National UK LMC conference

May

02

Londonwide LMCs' conference

Why being able to summarise medical records still matters in the digital age

Trainer Hilary Andrews explains why the move to electronic records means having non-clinical staff who can summarise notes is still a valuable asset.

READ MORE

Also this month...

Tips of the month

A round-up of our weekly practical tips shared during January, based on common queries we received from GPs and practice teams.

READ MORE â

GPC roadshow

The BMA's General Practitioners Committee (GPC) are holding a roadshow in the afternoon on Thursday 15 February in London. The GPC Executive team will be explaining the contract changes for 2018/19 and taking questions. Note: this event was moved from 7 March.

READ MORE

General Practitioner Committee elections

Two seats in London are up for election in the latest round of elections to the BMA's GPC. Nominations are now open.

READ MORE â–°

Media and public affairs round-up

On 13 January, The Times covered our campaign to push-back against inappropriate requests for school sick notes. 17 January saw Londonwide LMCs running media training for four LMC members from Tower Hamlets, Waltham Forest and Bromley.

We continue to be very active in promoting the interests of London GPs and practice staff on Twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn. We also support practices that are approached with media requests. You can find details of how to get support here.

Got a story? Email us at comms@lmc.org.uk. Deadline for next month's submissions is 14 Feb.

Download your resources from our GP State of Emergency website.

www.lmc.org.uk