Media and public affairs round-up

Londonwide LMCs' CEO Dr Michelle Drage was interviewed by GPonline at our conference, resulting in a piece on GP at Hand and a piece calling for NHS England and CCGs to reduce administrative pressures on practices being published after the conference. Two days after the conference Michelle wrote a piece for the Huffington Post on the problems created for GPs by demand for un-resourced work. On 18 May the BMJ covered our analysis of where GP at Hand is drawing patients from (accessible with BMA members login).

We continue to be very active in promoting the interests of London GPs and practice staff on Twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn. We also support practices that are approached with media requests. You can find details of how to get support here.

Almost a fifth of our practices have signed up to the new Londonwide LMCs's Buying Group which gives them access to the best offers and additional discounts specially agreed for group members. If you have not yet signed up you can do so here.

Buying Group partner MIAB (The Medical Insurance Advisory Bureau) provides expert insurance for member practices. Explore how MIAB can help to protect you and your family.
