The professional voice of London general practice

Wootten Dean Chartered Surveyors

Bryan Wootten has been providing property related advice to GP Practices as an independent surveyor since 2006. He specialises in supporting GP Practices in the following matters:

Surgery valuation advise for partnership purposes

Notional Rent appeals

Lease rent reviews

Negotiation of new leases and lease renewals including NHS approval in accordance with the Premises Directions

Supporting GP Practices with new surgery proposals including securing CCG approval for scheme proposals via PIDs and business cases

Sale and Leaseback proposals

Bryan has specialised in primary care property matters since 2000 and has experience working within the Department of Health and the District Valuer's office prior to working as an independent consultant.
